Luther McCarty Likely to Swap
Punches with Englishman.

Los Angeles, Jan. 3.—Bombardeur Wells, the English champion, may be the next opponent of Luther McCarty, the white heavy-weight champion. Negotiations were opened to-day intending to bring Wells to this country for a fight with McCarty. It is doubtful if the bout will be staged before the middle of the summer. For several months before fighting again, McCarty will take a long rest.

Paris Wants McCarty.
Calgary, Alberta, Jan. 3.—Richard E. Leishan, Parisian fight promoter, arrived in Calgary with Tommy Gurn, who wants to meet Luther McCarty in Paris on the day before the Grand Prix, next June. A message has been sent to McCarty asking terms.

Middy Wrestlers in Line.
Annapolis, Md., Jan. 3.—The Navy's wrestling team this year contains many heavy-weights, and the prediction is made that it will have an easy time in the intercollegiate tournament which opens in February.

YALE COACHES PLAN TRIP TO ENGLAND

Executive Staff of the Crew Will Visit
Oxford and Cambridge
Oarsmen.

New Haven, Conn., Jan. 3.—Capt. Charley Snowden, Head Coach Averill Harriman, and Assistant Coach James Otis Rodgers, the executive staff of the Yale crew, will sail to-morrow morning for England to study the rowing systems, especially to the great English universities and generally of English clubs. They will ship on the steamer George Washington from New York City and will remain in England three weeks. They will visit both the Oxford and Cambridge rowing camps, where the two English universities are in the thick of preparation for their annual race, and will carefully observe English methods in detail. They will be the guests of prominent rowing authorities in London before their return.

Rodgers said of the trip: "It seems desirable to refresh the picture of the perfect stroke, and this can be secured by a visit to the English camp." Yale last year adopted the English stroke in its entirety, but the coaches feel that visiting the source of the stroke will avoid confusion in details. Last year Harriman, who was the freshman coach, spent three weeks in England during March, visiting both the Oxford and Cambridge crews.

Capt. Snowden is stroke of the Yale crew, and he is likely to row in some of the English boats before his return. His experience with the English oarsmen, proving of particular benefit, Harriman is the son of the late Edward Harriman. Rodgers has been coach of the Yale crew two years, but didn't visit England last year. It is expected that the oarsmen will meet Bob Cook, the former Yale coach, in London. He has been in England since last July.

Garcelon Resigns at Harvard.
Cambridge, Mass., Jan. 3.—In a communication addressed to Lebaron R. Briggs, chairman of the committee on athletics and athletic sports at Harvard, William F. Garcelon to-day announced his resignation as graduate treasurer and secretary of the Harvard Athletic Association because of the great growth of his law business.

Paul Withington, the former Harvard football star, his assistant, probably will succeed in the place.

Locke Has Good Backing.
Pittsburg, Jan. 3.—It was learned to-day that W. F. Baker, former police commissioner of New York, is one of the several men for whom Will Locke has been stalling in securing an option on the Philadelphia National League club. Gov. John K. Tener is said also to be interested in the deal.

Welch Indians' Captain.
Carlisle, Pa., Jan. 3.—Basket-ball is not on the list of sports at Carlisle Indian School any more, neither is baseball, but the Indians are allowed to play one game of basketball this year. It will be against Pennsylvania. Gus Welch, the quarter back on the football team, will captain the Indians in this game. Thorpe is not likely to be in the line-up, but so far as can be learned the Indians will have a good five.

REDUCE SALARY LIMIT.

Tri-State League Drops to $3,000.

Reorganization Necessary.
Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 3.—The Tri-State Baseball League to-day voted to reduce the salary limit from $2,000 a month and $15 per man to $1,500 per month and $10 per man. This will necessitate a virtual reorganization of many of the teams. Reading and Chester representatives led the fight for a reduction. Reports showed that every club lost money last season.

The league dissolved the claim of Manager George W. Heckert, of Trenton, for $1,435 back salary. A new board of directors was elected, as follows: W. S. Tunia, Harrisburg; Dr. A. H. Reilly, Allentown; John H. Myers, Atlantic City; Thomas H. Brown, Wilmington.

BOYS ENTERTAINED AT Y. M. C. A.

The boys of the Y. M. C. A. were treated to a great card of indoor sports in their gymnasium last evening. The Olympic Club basketball team, the pride of the younger element among the employed boys, won from the Fort Myer Juniors in an interesting game, 23 to 18. George Hecht and Sidney Leech held the interest of the large crowd in as pretty a race as has been seen this year at the association. The last lap was a hummer. In the last few strides the flying Hecht forged to the front and won by a foot.

Then the big boys went out for thirty minutes of fast basketball. The Orioles, of the Y. M. C. A., won from the Shamrocks, 20 to 4.

Capt. Snowden's match between Donald Woolf and Fred Chittenden proved interesting. Woolf winning in five minutes.

Chance Out of National League.

New York, Jan. 3.—Frank Farrell, owner of the New York Americans, is to-day in possession of the release of Frank Chance by the Cincinnati club. He paid $1,500 to secure the "Peetie" leader and at once wired Chance concerning the release.

Pendleton Not to Turn Pro.

Princeton, N. J., Jan. 3.—"Toile" Pendleton, one of the greatest all-around athletes ever turned out by Princeton, announced to-day that he would not sign any of the several major league baseball contracts that have been sent to him.
